

bridal party at Buckingham Palace on Princess Mary's wedding day, February 28 ated, left to right: Lady Mary Cambridge, Princess Maud, Lady Cavendish, Lady ynne. Back row: Lady Doris Gordon-Lennox, Lady Bowes-Lyon, Viscount Lasrincess Mary, Major Sir Victor Mackenzie, Lady Bridgeman and Lady May Cam-Copyright, Vandyk, Ltd.

The wedding ceremony in Westminster Abbey, just as the bride and bridegroom are kneeling on the altar steps, while the Archbishop of Canterbury reads the service.

Above — The splendid scene outside Westminster Abbey just as the bride and bridegroom depart. The Princess and her husband are in the first coach. The King and Queen have just entered the state coach, in front of the doors. At the far left are the Horse Guards swinging ahead of the bridal procession.

The bride and bridegroom on the balcony of Buckingham Palace receiving the homage of the great crowds. Later King George and Queen
Mary and Queen Alexandra joined them.
Copyright, Keystone View.

The bridal coach at the Cenotaph in Whitehall, the monument erected to Britain's Unknown Soldier. Here occurred the most striking incident of the entire ceremonial pageant, for here Princess Mary left her bridal bouquet as a tribute to the anonymous hero who gave his life for her father's people.
Copyright, Kadel & Herbert.